CLASS ODE

Lucia Van Den Kerckhoven

Air: Love's Old Sweet Song

We will not ask of life the greatest things,
Uncommon gifts, or glory or renown;
Only for strength to meet whate'er life brings.
Nor will we ask to know not grief nor pain,
Only for courage firm to meet each test.
This is our prayer be ours the loss or gain.

CHORUS

Our school days may vanish,
Our friends may go far,
But mem'ries that linger
No hardships can mar.
We'll still have the teachings,
The precepts of Gould.
We'll keep high thy standard,
Spirit of Gould. O, Spirit of Gould.

That years may fill our hearts with deep content
For this we hope and will be satisfied,
Reward of labor and of days well spent,
Nor doubts disturb the choosing of our way.
Firmly and proudly walk until the end.
For this we ask and do most humbly pray.

CHORUS
